The newsletter of the South Street WI

June 2016

Letter from the President

Dear Fellow Members,

I cannot believe I am writing this in a freezing cold house, (I really must put the heating back on despite John!) and in a howling gale in June! We have however lots to look forward to, our outing to Hampton Court and our August tea party when we will have a demonstration of flower arranging. The finished arrangements will then be raffled - the food of course will be delicious.

Do please read your What's On for any other information about all our clubs and events.

My best wishes to you all,

Ingrid Osborne – President

A reminder that the coach leaves ASH at 8 o'clock so that we reach Hampton Court in plenty of time to meet our guide. Own arrangements for lunch in one of the restaurants or bring a picnic. In the afternoon the two-hour river cruise will take us to Richmond where our coach will meet us for the return journey home.

There are still several places available for this outing. The full cost of £60 is being collected at this our June meeting. Numbers must be finalised and remaining payments collected at the July meeting. (Linda Swift)
